Wednesday, February 5. 1707.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 11.

Milan, Jan. 29.

THE Contributions to be furnish'd by this Dutchy being regulated, the Troops are going into Quarters in the fortified Places, and the open Country will not be burthen'd with them. All Vagabonds and loose idle Persons are banish'd out of this State; and order is given for an exact List to be taken of all Strangers in every Parish. The rest of the Artillery design'd to be employ'd against our Castle is expected daily: So that we are in hopes to see this Affair, of which there has been so much talk, brought to an Issue. The 27th betimes in the Morning, the Garrison of the Castle made a Sally on the side towards the Gardiners Village; they kill'd 2 German Sentinels, 3 or 4 other Soldiers, set some Houses on Fire, and then retir'd into the Castle with 4 large Cattle and other Booty: 3 or 4 Inhabitants of the Village were kill'd likewise by the Cannon of the Castle, which fir'd to cover the Party that made the Sally. Some Soldiers of the Garrison took this Occasion to desert, and Yesterday a Lieutenant did the like. They write from Florence, that 3 Zealand Privateers had brought into Leghorn 2 French Prizes, laden at Martineco for Marseilles: They expected there 2 other Prizes, one belonging to Trapani, the other a French Ship laden with Corn and bound from Cagliari to Marseilles.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 11.

Letters from Genoa of the 22d of January advise, that 4 French Men of War were arriv'd at Cagliari in Sardignia; that by order of the Viceroy of that Island several Persons were taken into Custody, and 3 sent into Exile to the Island of St. Marguerite, for having enter'd into a Conspiracy to deliver up Sardignia to King Charles III: And that Signior Germano Captain of the St. John Baptist a Genouese Ship, was made a Knight of St. Lazarus by the King of France, in Consideration of his lending him 80000 Livres at 4 per Cent Interest.

Letters from Frankfort of the 6th of January, say, that General Döpf having had a Conference there with the Landgrave of Hesse-Darmstadt, was gone on from thence for Hailbron, thence to proceed to Vienna: That the Advices from Alsace continued to speak of great Preparations made by the Enemy to take the Field before the Germans are ready; and that there being great Cause to apprehend they will open the Campaign with the Siege of Landau, Care was taken to provide that Place, and also Philipsbourg, for Defence.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb 12.

Vienna, Jan. 29. Duke Maximilian of Hanover, the Prince of Darmstad, and General Heyster, use their several Interests at this Court to obtain the Government of Raab, vacant by the Death of Prince Lewis of Baden, and worth 20000 Florins yearly: 'Tis thought Duke Maximilian of Hanover will carry it. The Muscovite Resident Huyssen has offer'd General Heister 100000 Florins a Year, to engage him in the Czar's Service but for 2 Years; and 'tis said that General has desir'd Leave of the Imperial Court to accept this Offer, but in vain.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Feb. 11.

Vienna, Jan. 29. The Czar of Muscovy causes great Endeavours to be us'd here, to engage some Imperial General in his Service; but this Court appear unwilling to give their Consent to it, judging it not adviseable to give any Colour of Discontent at this Juncture to the King of Sweden, whose Designs are secret and impenetrable yet a while. They write from Presbourg, that General Staremburg will find it very difficult to march from thence down to Buda to joyn General Rabutin; not only because the Malecontents are Masters of several Passes in his Way, but because the continual rainy Weather has made the Roads so deep, that the Artillery can hardly be drawn along.

Stockholm, Jan. 26. M. Olivencrans, Father of the Countess of Lilienroot, and Plenipotentiary of Sweden at the Treaty of Nimueguen, died here the 20th Instant in the 73d Year of his Age.

Hanover, Feb. 4. The 31st of last Month our Electoral Princess was brought to bed here of a Prince, who was christen'd the next Day in the Chappel of the Palace by the Name of Frederick Lewis.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Feb. 11.

Namur, Feb. 8. We continue to store our Magazines here, and our Gouvernor omits no Preparations that may enable him to defend this Place with the utmost Vigour, in Case the Allies should besiege it the ensuing Campaign. The March of the French, Spanish, and Bavarian Troops up to Germany, is put off to the 24th of this Month. Several Commissaries are gone before to Luxembourg, to provide for the Subsistence of these Troops in their March.

Brussels, Feb. 7. Some Days ago several thousand Men were detach'd towards Courtray from divers Garrisons in Flanders and Brabant, to cover that Town from any Attempts of the Enemy during the frosty Weather; and Brigadier Kepel went from hence to take on him the Command of them; but a Thaw coming and the Weather continuing open, 'tis suppos'd those Troops will of Course be order'd back agen to their former Quarters. In the mean time we have receiv'd Advice, that this Motion gave the Enemy a great Alarm, and made them detach some Troops towards Manbeuge, out of the Garrisons of Mons, Namur, Charleroy, and other Places, to observe our Men.

RACHEL ORMSTON, late of Martin's Lane, now Lives in the New-Buildings in Lawrence-street, near the Church in Great Chelsea, where she continues to Reduce all sorts of Crookedness, by the Method invented by the Famous VAN HELMONT, which is the most Certain, Safe, and the Easiest Way that has yet been Practised or Known, being without those Rugged and painful Racks of Neck-Swings, Iron-Bodice, or other Presles that are commonly us'd in such Cases, which are sure always to give abundance of Pain and Uneasiness, without any Certainty of Cure; wherein if they Fail, as oftner they do than otherwise, (because they depend altogether upon Force, without any probable Reason) commonly leave the Patient either Decried, or Consumptive, or both, at best Unhealthy. But this Method is altogether Easy, without any Force, and Consonant to the Gentle Rules of Nature, and the Tender Bodies of Growing Children; and for that Reason has all the Assurances of Success that Moral Probability can give, as the Practice has Demonstrated, inasmuch that some have scrupled to believe it to be the same Children after the Cure is perform'd.
